

FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE

A Wise Choice

First Year Experience (FYE) is a program in place in many colleges across the country. This program was developed because research has shown that students who make connections with their teachers, classmates, and campus are more likely to succeed. So what is FYE? At Gavilan, this program links required English courses together and provides tutoring and counseling. How do students benefit? By working together with your classmates and instructors, you will develop a stronger network of support. Students who enroll in FYE often report:

- higher GPA,
- increased involvement in school,
- more friends,
- more fun in school,
- ability to meet goals,
- stronger critical thinking, reading, and writing abilities,
- saving time and money

MARK YOUR CALENDARS - Thursday, Aug. 23rd from 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM in the North / South Lounge, FYE WelCome. Meet your instructors! Find out where your classes are and how to get money for books! Get connected with programs on campus such as EOPS, TRIO, MESA and more. Free lunch provided. RSVP to Josie Olivares at 408.852.2866 or jolivares@gavilan.edu ASAP; spaces are limited.

The following classes are part of a learning community. You must enroll in both courses.

Choose a THEME for your English class:

Find the number, by the course section number, that corresponds to a theme below.

- 1 Delve into an exploration of individual identity, with a focus on the ways we define ourselves in our interaction with others.
- 2 Explore environmental ethics with inquiry into questions the field raises: Do we have moral obligations to wildlife? What are the moral dilemmas food, water, and shelter raise? Then apply the emerging ethic to real life situations.
- 3 Investigate environmental issues, particularly those connected to what we eat and where we live.
- 4 Puente: Develop writing skills through an emphasis on Chicano/Latino literature.
- 5 The American Dream: Revisit the land of freedom and equality.
- 6 Re-examine American culture and values by looking at the modern myths of our time—critically read, write, and discuss controversial issues including the success of k-12 education, gender equality, the reality of the American dream, and the benefits of science.
- 7 Read works by scientists, journalists, mystics, and reformers about nature and the wilderness, listening to their reasoning, examining their evidence, and learning from their writing styles.
- 8 Explore the exciting realm of science and discover who we are and how we got here, and learn about the scientists and explorers who got us here while learning to write with panache, flair, and accuracy.
- 9 Writing the Self: Consider ways to use your own experience to craft strong arguments and study examples from some of the best autobiographical writers.
- 10 Examine short stories, poetry, drama, and the novel using formalist, historical and gender focused criticism.
- 11 Explore the great literature of the human condition, challenging you to respond to literary art, science fiction, music, tragedy, and the joy of life and living.
- 12 Learn to think courageously, to think intelligently, and to think for your- self through challenging the pseudoscientific, the paranormal, and the make-believe world of nutty beliefs and scams.
- 13 Explore American consumerism and wild alternatives.
- 14 First Year Experience with Service Learning: Learn to critically read, write, and think about contemporary issues; evaluate the credibility of sources ranging from academia to the media; and embrace the importance of understanding what is happening in the world around you.
- 15 Job? Employment? Career? Passion? Obsession? Come discuss the true meaning of occupation and examine what success means to you.
- 16 Our nation is focused on Facebook, buying in bulk, and drowning in debt. What can we do? Come investigate the important issues that are influencing your generation and the future of America.
- 17 Explore myth and magic, fantasy, folklore and fairy tales throughout literature.
- 18 Begin with Mindfulness: Reading and Writing as Contemplative Practices

ENGLISH

ENGL 1A Composition

Transferable: CSU, UC; CSU-GE:A2, IGETC:1A; GAV-GE:A2; CAN:ENGL2, ENGL SEQ A

This is a writing course which emphasizes expository writing, argumentative writing, and critical reading of expository prose. It is meant to train students in clear thinking and reasoned support of ideas. Students will be given the opportunity to read models of good expository and argumentative prose and learn the techniques of good writing. These include choosing appropriate subjects, developing restricted, unified, and precise theses and presenting supporting evidence in a logical, lucid, and effective manner. To achieve this end, students write no fewer than six essays and read at least five works, two of which are book length. PREREQUISITE: English 250 and English 260 or English 250 and SSCI 270A or English 250 and SSCI 270B with a grade of 'C' or better or satisfactory score on the English placement examination.

FINISH YOUR ENGLISH AND MATH PREREQUISITES IN ONLY ONE YEAR

WHO SHOULD ENROLL?

Students who want a strong foundation in the basics so they can succeed in their college courses*

What is Jumpstart?

A program that helps you get your required English and math classes quickly and successfully. With these linked courses, you'll be able to complete two English classes in the fall and two full semesters of math in the spring. Plus you'll get the full support of tutors, the Writing Center, Math Lab, counselors, and a core group of classmates studying together.

WHEN?

In fall 2012 take English 250P Writing and 260P Reading (6 units), and in spring 2013 take Math 235 (equivalent of Math 205 and 233) for 10 units.

WHY?

Focus on one subject at a time with the support of teachers, tutors, and classmates. At the end of the year, you'll be able to take transferrable courses, and you'll be one step closer to your degree or certificate.

* By spring 2013, students taking this program should be eligible for Math 235 (prerequisite Math 402 or eligibility for Math 205 or Math 235)
