GAVILAN COLLEGE

Service Learning
for community social change

Service Learning connects students and faculty to the community. It's used extensively at four year-colleges from Stanford to the entire CSU and UC systems. In Service Learning classes students:

- work under supervision at a partner agency in the community for 10-40 hours a semester (most Gavilan classes require 20-30 hours, and these hours replace other homework)
- reflectively relate the experience to class content.
- extend the reach, freshen the vision, and aid the work human service agencies do in the community.

Why should I take a Service Learning class?

- "I have transformed as an individual and have found my place in the world." – Jeshe W.
- "It definitely brings purpose, excitement and joy to your college experience/adventure." – Chuck H.
- "...it feels good giving out food to people who are in need." – Andre M.

For more information about Service Learning see page 19.
