8.0 Discussion/Information Items

8.1 Mental Health Taskforce, Alice Dufresne-Reyes, Nurse (5 min)

Alice has been working on having an active minds club and has attained a $250 grant to have an active minds club. she did a survey of 100 students that were interested. blanca has concerns of who would run it/who would be the advisor. ryan says at this point she's just putting the information out there motion to extend the time 5 minutes, D. Chavez, MSC L. Aparicio daniel asked if we would be expected to help people with these issues or if she's just trying to raise awareness of these issues

8.2 ASGC Leader Participation and Training, Blanca Arteaga, Advisor (5 min)

tabled to next meeting

8.3 ASGC Leader of the Year Award, Blanca Arteaga, Advisor (5 min)

Blanca wants to first congratulate those who were nominated. This person seized every opportunity given to them with ASGC and has never hesitated to be a part of the college. As part of his position, Nolan has been running ICC and working on the bylaws for ICC. Nolan also attends region IV meetings and advocates for students at the state level. Nolan exemplifies leadership in everything that he does. Nolan constantly demonstrates how he is a powerhouse.

Because of his dedication, positive energy, attitude and open mind.

Nolan did not intend to go out for this, intended to just improve student life. says it's astounding what can happen with an open mind

Dr. Rose wants to say that on behalf of the district, getting to know him and seeing him part of the power team is truly part of her boasting rights. what he's doing is certainly part of legacy building. he has power, grace, fortitude and strength. she's very excited for his leadership symposium

8.4 ASGC Promotional Wear, Nolan Golden, VP of Clubs (10 min)

tabled to next meeting

8.5 Food Trucks Update, Leslie Aparicio, VP of Community Outreach (5 min)

passed out a survey

met with Wade- leslie and tanie-working with rick so that we can have food trucks up to two times a semester, can revise a contract in 2021. so far what they did learn is that students aren't happy with the food trucks. talked about doing a lot more marketing at the cafeteria. rick, the owner is pretty open to doing a two week testing period

8.6 Guided Pathways Workplan, Brianna Everett, VP of Records (20 min)

reviewed GP workplan element 8 on clear program requirements, found that the plan part wasn't super relevant to the intention

8.7 Recurring Open Mic Event, Mikayla Gomez, VP of Activities (10 min)

every first and third tuesday and thursday as soon as this coming tuesday the 20th potentially move it for april blanca suggests that she work with tanie or whoever else would want to participate

11-12:30

tanie and leslie can get a flyer together by next friday

8.8 Advocacy and Policy Conference Follow-up, Adam Lopez, President (10 min)

daniel, adam and nolan went with dr. debbie klein to the state advocacy and policy conference got to lobby with ana caballero talked about the 115th college aimed at only the older working class proposed new funding formula

Blanca asks how they plan on sharing this information with other students

adam talks about how he plans on announcing it in his classes, bringing the information to events

9.0 Communications From the Floor alice has scheduled a QPR training for mental health on Friday April the 13th from 1-2 it's a step one certification for free on april 20th we should be having the leadership jam again. dr rose has a graduate level leadership training, have to discuss the possibility of moving the time of our meeting so we can attend. great opportunity to have her share Dr. Rose's graduate-level leadership training

10.0 Recognition

11.0 Adjournment

meeting adjourned at 4:26
