

Now you can have more income and still get CalFresh

I applied for CalFresh before but my income was too high and I did not qualify. Should I reapply?

The income limits for CalFresh went up on October 1, 2020. Use the chart below to see if your income is less than the amount listed for your household size. If it is, you may be able to get CalFresh – even if you applied before and did not qualify. Call Second Harvest Food Bank at 1-800-984-3663 if you would like to apply.

What are the new income limits?

Use the chart below to see if your income (before taxes) is below the maximum amount. These income amounts are for October 1, 2020 – September 30, 2021.

Effective Oct. 1, 2020 – Sept. 30, 2021

Household Size	Maximum Gross Monthly Income
1	$2,128
2	$2,874
3	$3,620
4	$4,368
5	$5,114
6	$5,860
7	$6,608
8	$7,354
Each additional household member	+ $748

Does this apply to everyone?

These income limits apply to most households. It is important to tell the county if you pay for child care. If you are age 60+ or disabled, it is also important to tell the county about your housing costs and out-of-pocket medical expenses.
